Was Pauline right about the Socceroos?

Pauline Hanson's comments about the Socceroos deserves a little more thought. We think the mainstream media misunderstood her comments or perhaps misreported them. People need to be careful - there's a lot of misinformation about. Particularly from the major parties and their media mouthpieces. This article tries to go a bit further with the analogy to see if Pauline was onto something worthwhile.

2026 ALP Budget Tax Changes

Albanese and Chalmers - and their team - lied to Aussies before the 2025 election. Their 2026 Budget proposes CGT, Negative gearing, and Trust changes. It is GAME OVER for the ALP. Albo's Budget will go down in history as the trigger for the revolution many have thought will never happen. The destruction of the two party dictatorship is now a certainty. Thank you so much Albo! It is time to put in place policies that will enable Aussies to live in civilised freedom. The key issues can be seen in the BRN submission to the Senate inquiry into the ALP's tax changes. The inquiry is not genuine. It is a whitewash. Many submissions will not be seen before the two days of hearings will conclude. The battle is political. Join in.

News / Article Summary

[Behold - The Banana Republic]

The government, various “experts,” and media commentators are manipulating the public into accepting the idea that new taxes will somehow help ease the cost of living and housing crises. What BRN has discovered is a secret major party program all about creating inflation. Code named - Banana Republic.

[2025 Election Analysis]

The major parties have not been working in Australia's interests for many years. The cost of living crisis and particularly the housing affordability disaster are proof enough but there is much more evidence. Many Australians are not interested in politics so when they are forced to vote they often fall for the lies from politicians and the mainstream media. Many have forgotten the importance of living in a free society where fundamental core rights are cherished and respected. After the LNP's lowest primary vote ever there comes a great opportunity. Either the LNP makes significant changes to its operation or a third party must rise to save the country. We suspect the best option would be to pressure the LNP to swing back to policies based around a rock solid philosophy supporting Aussies living in peaceful, prosperous, and civilised freedom. Our election analysis shows that the ALP does not have a strong mandate. They too got one of their worst primary votes ever. Higher debt and taxes are weapons used to weaken our people. Higher costs of living are the inevitable result. These are deliberate polices that are destroying the nation. In fact BRN would go as far as saying - "Aussies are witnessing the controlled demolition of their country." Now is the time for Aussies to take a stand and demand real reform. Will the LNP have the guts and brains to do the job. If they do they could win in 2028. If not they will likely be in opposition for at least another two terms.

[Under 16s Social Media Ban is not about kids]

The move to ban Under 16s from Social Media has nothing to do with protecting kids. It is yet another step toward putting all people into a digital prison. The Bill along with the Misinformation Bill, Digital ID and even recent Electoral Reforms are all related. They have no place in a country wanting to live in freedom. The LNP and ALP are working against Aussies. Don't let them get away with it. Here we present the electrical services. There are multiple threats that could see similar outages. The most severe of which could stop services for weeks or more. The BRN submission to this inquiry shows why governments must stop the War On Cash and limit the ability of banks to manipulate our financial system to suit their agenda of maximising profits at the country's expense. Our freedoms and rights are at risk unless cash is preserved as a critical element of our economy.

Voice Lost

Right now it is very likely the Voice will not be approved by the majority of Aussie voters and it probably will not be approved in any State. Banking Must Change

News / Article Summary

It's time to change the way banks operate. It's all here: a people's bank; how to manage the risk of bank failure and even better how to prevent them. The Senate inquiry into regional bank closures was a great opportunity to spread the word about critical reforms. Banking must change to a system that supports the interests of the people and country. This is an emergency and if we don't act now we face a very bleak future. We will own nothing and be very unhappy .... just the way our rulers want. These reforms help turn the tables ..... a first step to the rulers owning nothing and being miserable.

[The Last Emperor - King Charles lll]

The passing of a much loved leader brings a great opportunity for reform and rejuvenation for Australia and other nations with a longstanding relationship with the United Kingdom. In this hard hitting article we spill the beans on the Age of Empire. It is time for the people to snatch back their power, freedom and rights before the globalists impose their long planned for cashless authoritarian surveillance state. Are you going to wait until they mandate microchip injections or social credit scores that limit how you spend your time and money before you demand change?

[The Takedown Of Australia]

In a country as wealthy as Australia why are we seeing such horrific suicide figures - particularly amongst farmers, veterans and our young? Why are so many struggling with cost of living pressures - particularly housing? We are seeing such hardships because our economic system is structured to CRIMINALLY extract as much wealth as possible from the people and their country. Australians have noticed a gradual loss of core freedoms and rights as well as an attack on the nation's sovereignty. This is a worldwide phenomenon and it stems from a battle between competing criminal cartels using politics and finance as a weapon of abuse, exploitation and control. Try this thought experiment - think of Australia as a town run by an organised crime ring. AND then see what has happened to Australia - all is not as rosy as pollies and bankers told us for the last 30 years - especially before elections.

Here we present some opinions re: his work but we also are keen to consider the areas that were not properly investigated ... or ignored. There is more work to do if Australians want a finance system that exists to serve their interests. That is a very different beast to the one that Hayne has been investigating.

[Albo The Gaslighter]

How many times did PM Albanese make it clear that the Stage 3 Tax changes were going to be implemented as planned and agreed to by both major parties? The main problem is not that he is deceptive - they all are. The bigger problem was that there were no tax cuts or cost of living relief at all. In fact he has locked in tax rises. But that isn't even the worst of it. The whole tax system itself is a criminal operation enriching the rulers. We need some decent MSM journos on the case to expose the fallacy about the need for taxation in its current form. Here is a clue - in 1913 USA - the Income Tax was established at the same time as the Federal Reserve. You might be able work out the rest.

The government and the banks caused the inflation, interest rate rises, and cost of living disaster. People seriously think pollies work for them?

[End Of The Road For ASIC]

Yet another Senate inquiry into ASIC has been running this year. We believe ASIC has failed in its role. A corporate watchdog that hasn't got teeth will never do the job required. Corporate crimes will only diminish when perpetrators face serious consequences and punishments for their crimes & misconduct. ASIC should be subject to significant reform or axed. Corporate crooks need to know that their victims will be properly compensated and their ill-gotten gains will be confiscated as they are being placed in a jail cell.

This approach puts in place a powerful incentive for companies and their staff to participate in the market with honesty and higher level ethics.

[Access To Justice]

Although flawed; Labor's Promise to SME's and Farmers was the first time that a major party committed to start building a fence at the top of the cliff. All we have had, up till now, is a hearse at the bottom of the cliff, that carted selected corpses off to the coroner's ASIC and APRA for post-mortem. Even then they only retrieve some of the bodies, most who fell, or were herded by AFCA, or were pushed by a Bank, ended up in a mass grave and forgotten. On the rare occasion when a consumer did survive the fall, mortally injured they are generally ignored, or worse placated. Damaged, broke and disillusioned, they wander in a form of limbo, in search of some form of justice or even a friendly audience.

Michael Sanderson is an ex-farmer who lost his farm due to bank misconduct and AFCA being not fit for purpose. He is a foundation member of Bank Warriors and an Advisory Panel member of Bank Reform Now.
