Politicians Ignore The Australian Constitution To Maintain Power

Summary:
The Australian Parliament has become an unworkable joke. Our Constitution has been disrespected and ignored. The politicians must face the consequences of their actions. We deserve far better from Mr Turnbull. He must close the Parliament down until the High Court sorts out this fiasco.

Constitutional Crisis - Politicians Create A Shambles

Australia is in the middle of its worst ever Constitutional crisis. This Parliament is illegitimate. The laws it has passed are invalid. Many of the people who were elected did not have the decency, diligence or intellect to make sure they were eligible to sit. The politicians involved can't just walk away. There are penalties to be enforced and paid. This is not a joke. The Constitution is very clear in its intent. Ignorance of the law is no excuse.

Have you noticed that there is one set of rules for us and a raft of alternatives for the elite .... and the politicians they use to control us?

You fill out a form wrongly at Centrelink of don't document a $200 tax deduction properly and you are at risk of all manner of penalties. If you're a politician and part of a dodgy Parliament you can dictate your own terms regardless what the foundation document of our nation requires.

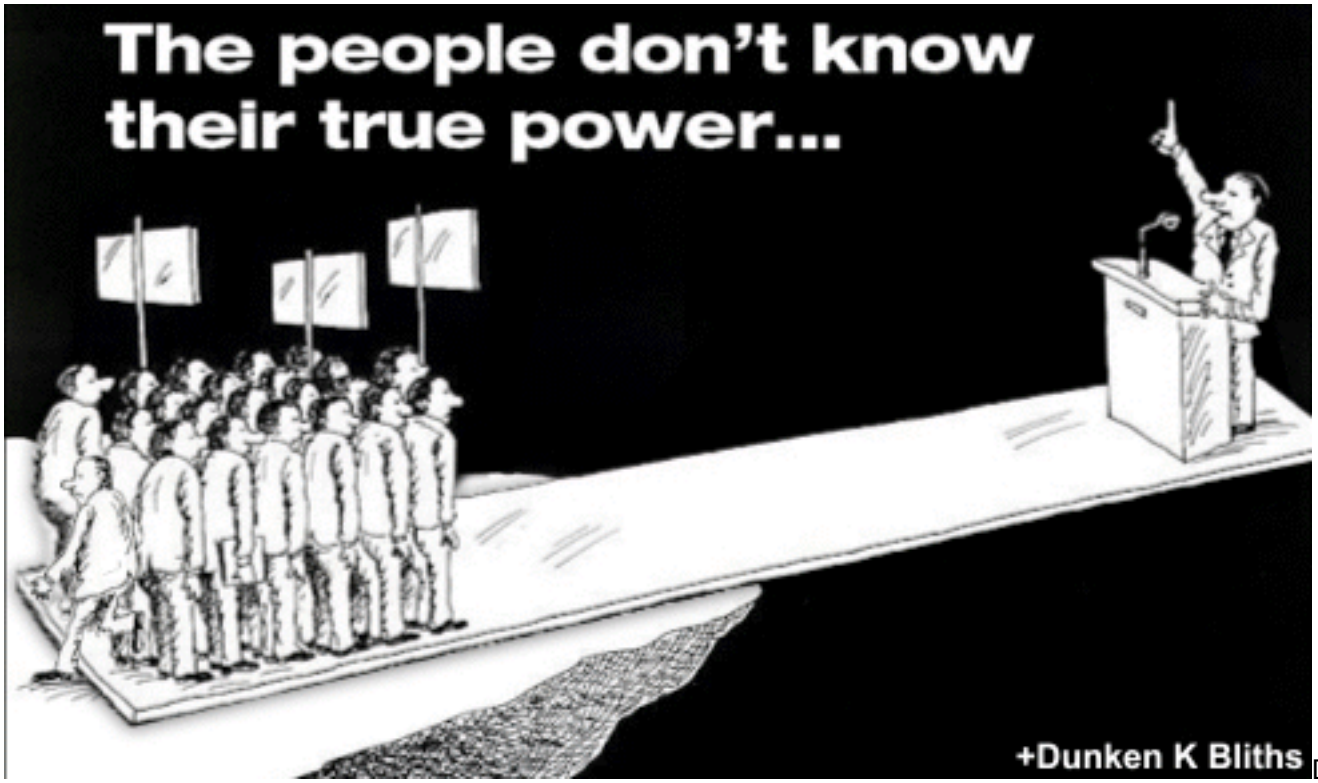

Politicians must be held to account if you want genuine reform

The High Court and Parliament should not protect and insulate pollies that have broken the law. Life is harsh for too many of us. If you stuff up you cop it. A farmer has a couple of bad seasons and the bank takes his land and sells it to Chinese "investors" with dirty money. A small business owner miscalculates and they lose the lot. A homeowner signs a dodgy bank contract and when their situation changes they're turfed into the street.

Are we being harsh demanding politicians obey the law? They made a bad decision they can cop the consequences. If they were ineligible to stand it means they collected taxpayer money under false pretenses. They are supposed to pay it back with interest. Life is tough ..... join the club.

You think people are angry? You bet. We are so sick of the farce we see every day in Canberra. Pollies have been ignoring and disrespecting the Constitution for decades. They are deliberately undermining its protections ..... and we are paying them for this? Get real!

What are they actually achieving that benefits the people's interests?

Did they ban corporate and foreign donations to political parties? No

Have they set up a Federal ICAC? No

Did they fix the school curriculum and stop the continuing slide in our children's performance? No

Have they seen to it that an elderly pensioner doesn't have to wait twelve months for a hip replacement or cataract surgery? No

Have they put in place policies to make sure that most people can afford to own a home if they so choose? No

Have they stopped bankers from profiting from criminal and unethical behaviour? No

Have they set up a powerful Royal Commission into the banking and finance sector? No

Have they seriously tackled two of the biggest harms devastating far too many of our people – domestic violence and suicide? No

Are they ready to handle the collapse of full time work and rise in under and unemployment due to rapid developments in artificial intelligence and automation? No

Is anything they are doing ensuring that our kids get a fair go building a life with security and prosperity? A life that is not worse than their parents dealt with? No

Have they faced the fact that societal ills such as mental illness, drug & alcohol abuse, violence and freelance crime (as opposed to State sanctioned crime) is in large part caused by the pathological society they have helped create? No

While all the above have been left undone what have they been doing?

Rather than put resources where it counts there is plenty of money to give billions to banks in tax cuts. Plenty for military adventures that cause heartache, mayhem and population displacement on the other side of the planet. Plenty to continue inflating the banking cartel Ponzi scheme.

Who are they working for? It's almost like they are deliberately sabotaging our country. The High Court better take a very close look at this because if we go back decades we'll very likely find other ineligible politicians that appear to have engaged in treason. Yes folks we have to face it …. we are on the edge of ripping off the horrible scab of historical Constitutional abuse.

We are being choked with paper chains and debt. Our prosperity and freedom is being destroyed by politicians who don't even have the right to sit in Parliament. Disrespect our Constitution and you disrespect us. Throw the book at them.

The Two Party – Pea & Thimble Trick

It's all just a part of the two party trick folks. The two Greens, Ludlam and Waters, resigned as soon as they realised they were ineligible to sit due to contravening Section 44 of the Constitution. Open and shut case. What do LNP and ALP do? They dither and distract while refusing to budge ..... And their leader Turnbull has the gall to back them to the hilt. This guy should work for the banks ..... oh yeah …. he does.

There is only one reasonable course of action ... and a decent leader would have done it by now. Shut down the Parliament until the matter is sorted by the High Court. Don't worry about how we'll go without politicians appearing in the news every day. The country will be just fine.

The people spoke loud and clear at the last election. We don't trust either party to look after our interests.

> Every single day politicians get a chance to earn our respect but it can only be done by actions taken ..... not by words spoken.

We've been sold out. Wage growth is stagnant, housing is unaffordable, a crash looms. Corporate powers continue to fleece us with government blessing. Our assets are being sold off to foreign interests.

We’re going backwards and our leaders fiddle with BS while this shambles continues. Pathetic!

All the pollies are serving foreign interests. The only thing holding this corrupt system in place is deliberately manufactured fear, ignorance and apathy – aided by the propaganda focused media and education systems. Just wait till people wake up.

We have rights and freedoms that must be respected and cherished. We do not exist to be abused and ripped off by criminals and thugs.

You will never be given your freedom by a politician ….. you have to take it.
